

DAY 1

TUESDAY, 18 OCTOBER [EUROPEAN SOLIDARITY CENTRE]

16:00	REGISTRATION
18:00-19:30	OPENING CEREMONY (WELCOME AND KEY NOTE SPEECH)
19:40-21:00	COCKTAIL

DAY 2

WEDNESDAY, 19 OCTOBER [AMBER EXPO]

09:30-11:00	Lessons from 15 years developing ICT solution development for seniors; collecting the steps for scaling up.	Bringing VR (Virtual Reality) to Palliative Care - An innovator's guide to the End-of-Life	UX in Care Recruiting Innovation: Applying user research in the HEROES project	Towards (eco-)systemic innovation & collaboration for Ageing well in Europe
11:00-11:15	COFFEE BREAK + EXHIBITION
11:15-12:15	PLENARY SESSION Making our health & care systems fit for an ageing population in the 2020s
12:30-13:55	LUNCH BREAK + EXHIBITION
14:00-15:30	Co-designing ICT supported toilets and the challenges towards useful and sustainable solutions	Designing virtual reality-based serious games for dementia prevention- Game4Mind	Health and Care Innovative Ecosystems - facilitating a life-course approach to active and healthy ageing: Building the case for Integrated Care	Strategy, Segmentation, Storytelling and Social media. Our 4S approach to communicating research and raising public awareness. Top tips and lessons learnt from working with AAL and other research organisations and projects
15:30-16:00	COFFEE BREAK + EXHIBITION
16:00-18:00	AAL entrepreneurs' secrets to success	Ecosystem Health check	Freedom and inclusion are just one click away	How to cocreate a community calendar with older people in your neighbourhood using PlaceCal

DAY 3

THURSDAY, 20 OCTOBER [AMBER EXPO]

09:30-11:00	A life-course, ICT-approach to cognitive decline: State of the art, challenges and prospects, examples from the ReMember-Me project	Increase the impact of your AAL-funded project through digital accessibility	„Impact cultures revised“ – A first way out of impact culture conflicts, based on interdisciplinary understanding and structured AAL focused approaches in the project 3vA-ALuation	Transferability of digital health solutions: from research to reality
11:00-11:15	COFFEE BREAK + EXHIBITION
11:15-12:15	PLENARY SESSION The impact of the AAL Programme: a legacy of 14 years
12:30-13:55	LUNCH BREAK + EXHIBITION
14:00-15:30	The benefits and challenges that ICT-supported solutions bring to overcome the challenges of an ageing society. the experience of 3 pre-commercial procurement projects	The Future of Social Robotics to Assist the Ageing Population	Impact of Dance on aging from several perspectives	How can the use of body-worn sensors help avoid unnecessary hospitalizations?
15:30-16:00	COFFEE BREAK + EXHIBITION
16:00-17:30	Life is for living – how to prevent involuntary loneliness	Funneling user feedback into business models: experiences from the GUIDed project	Impact-by design as a key to enhance impact of AAL projects and experiences	Digitalization of the AAL ethical dialogue
18:00-02:00	FORUM CLOSING (DINNER, AWARD CEREMONY, CLOSING, PARTY) [GDANSK STADIUM]			