

DAY 2

WEDNESDAY, 19 OCTOBER 12:30-13:55

Gaya Bin Noon	Data Governance for Active Assisted Living Along the Continuum of Care
Carla Zaldua	Screening campaign – World Alzheimer's Day
Tarja Heinonen	The Virtual Lab for Social and Health Care - Co-creation brings companies and elderly together
Marcus Garschall	DemiCare – Personalised support for informal caregivers of people with
Anna Patricia Rocha	Supporting Communication for People with Aphasia While Lying In Bed
Shih-Ching Chen	Smart Assistive Technology for Dementia Care and Its Socio-Economic Impacts
Stephanie Jansen-Kosterink	Technology acceptance and potential health effects of an online service to support older adults who have lost their spouse - Preliminary outcomes.

DAY 2

WEDNESDAY, 19 OCTOBER 15:30-16:00

Kang Wang	Supporting Healthy Aging using Smart Home Technologies
Hank Kune	3 Paths for Elderhood
Lena Brandl	Older adults' usage and appreciation of a monitoring system to deliver support on-demand in an online grief intervention
Marketta Niemelä	Smart Care and Ageing at Home in Finland: towards national coordination of technology supporting living at home
Arlene Oemoto	Future of heatwave monitoring: emerging technologies and interdisciplinary collaboration
Sofia Moreno-Perez	Small changes of great impact: Innovation Procurement in eHealth
Anna Schüttler	Analysing the socio-economic sustainability of SHAPES open data platform

DAY 3

THURSDAY, 20 OCTOBER 12:30-13:55

Hajar Abedifirouzjaei	Use of Radar and Machine Learning to Capture Parameters of Gait
Joanna Starosta-Sztuczka	eSticky Support for people with memory problems to maintain their
Vanessa Pipino	ReMember-Me System: does technology literacy have an impact on the acceptance of a technological solution for cognitive stimulation in older adults?
Zbigniew Pilat	ICT tools support lifelong learning for elderly in remote mode
Jonathan Gomez-Raja	The ESSENCE project as a new model of home-based care for seniors
Cosmina Paul	Exploratory Insights on AAL Programme: towards a micro-innovation
Kati Honkanen	The inclusion model for decision making in technology deployment

DAY 3

THURSDAY, 20 OCTOBER 15:30-16:00

Romina Sampanai	ReMember-Me SYSTEM: THE IMPACT OF A DIGITAL INTERVENTION ON OLDER ADULTS' COGNITIVE FUNCTIONS
Maria Pahlberg	Bingo?! Movment, laughter and joy through bingo
Cosmina Paul	The Survey Results for a New Technology for Seniors and Their Next of Kin
Romina Sampanai	iCan system: Testing Community assistance service for older adults in small scale living enviroment.
Kati Honkanen	Virtual 360-degree and virtual reality environments increasing the knowledge, competence and orientation of home care workers
Sanne Broeder	Assessing the market opportunity of the wisdom of Age Platform through a participatory design approach
Emilie Kauffeldt Wegener	A Collaborative Process to Identify Needs of Older Frail People in the Design of a Conversational agent aimed to Mediate Knowledge Exchange, avoid Social Exclusion and to Increase Health Literacy for Older Frail People